J Monkeys Books Available for Preorder

Street Sign Scavenger Hunt is a book that parents and preschoolers can enjoy together to practice early literacy skills. Rather than reading a traditional story, kids can practice identifying shapes, colors, letters, numbers and discerning meaning from signs they see everyday.

Rather than reading a story, In the Woods is a book of questions to ask your preschooler about what they see on each page. This book is designed to help youngsters struggling with speech to practice and broaden their vocabulary.

The Dixie and Taco books are designed for parents and kindergarteners to read together. In each of these short adventures, whenever one of forty common kindergarten sight words is used, it is written in blue as a cue to your student that he may be able to read that word himself. See how often they turn up? So far, there are three books in the series, with plans for more.

Brook the Fish is written specifically for first graders, using words that follow the English grammar rules so that your student can gain confidence in reading. The book is short enough for her to get through it in a few minutes (which is important for those who struggle with reading) and ends with a question designed to inspire a conversation with you.

The Cordovan Vault is the first book of the Livingston-Wexford Adventures, a paranormal, Middle Grade, series for 'tweens & teens. Quinn Wexford and Kayla Livingston are 14-year old enemies, forced to work together to figure out what happened to their guardians and uncover the secrets of the universe. Just another day in an average kid's life. Not! The Peacock Tale is the second book in the series.
